

Diocese of Denver

ELIZABETH KELLY, Correspondent.
The Intermountain and Colorado Catholic is placed on sale at the James Clarke church goods house, 627 15th St., Denver, Colo.

CITY OF DENVER.

Commencement Week at Denver Schools.

All of the schools of Denver have closed their doors for the summer holidays and many of the students have come to other places to spend the vacation. The classes were all large this year and the exercises in all cases were of an interesting character. On Tuesday evening the Immaculate Conception High School held commencement exercises and diplomas were conferred on five young women. They were Misses Ruth Sullivan, Laura Mary O'Brien, Olive Dorothea Thurler, Mary Mulrooney and Jane O'Neill. The stage was artistically decorated in the class colors. Music of a high order was interspersed with the essays and literary numbers, and altogether the programme was a most pleasing one. Bishop McGuire, director of the school made a brief address, dwelling upon the beauty of a Christian education, and more especially of a Catholic education, which he awarded the class pins and diplomas. Miss Lang and Miss O'Brien equally merited first honors, but the valuable trophy went by lot to Miss Lang and the salutary to Miss O'Brien.

A programme equally interesting was presented by the Sacred Heart High school at Adelphi hall on Wednesday evening. The class was composed of five members, all of whom acquitted themselves admirably. Music and recitations with the essays and orations made the programme interesting. The hall was decorated in purple and lavender, the class colors, and the class motto, emblazoned in lights, was above the stage. The members of the class were: M. Joseph Tyan Grace Curran, Frances M. Sullivan, Katherine Carr and Francis J. Reid. The director of the school, Rev. Edward Barry, S. J., made the presentation of diplomas with appropriate remarks.

On Tuesday evening the School of the Annunciation held its closing exercises in the school hall. The students who had completed the preliminary eighth grade course were awarded certificates, and these were presented by the pastor, Right Rev. Monsignor Robinson. All of the pupils took part in the programme, which consisted of drills, musical selections and one-act sketches. Much time was given to the preparation of the programme, and its rendition was highly appreciated by the large audience which filled the hall to capacity. A feature of the programme was the comedy sketch entitled "That Rascal Pat," which closed the evening. In the cast were five of the students. "The Battle of the Books," a debate was led by Miss Veronica McNulty, while John Capehart had the leading role in the farce. A cane drill by forty-two boys was pleasing, while thirty-seven of the girls gave a pantomime entitled "The Brownies." Twenty-one of the older girls gave a chorus, "The Fairies' Revel," and a patriotic scene, "The Blue and the Gray," by the boys was enthusiastically received.

Those who received certificates from the eighth grade were: John J. Capehart, Timothy Sullivan, Albert Quinlivan, Edward Young and Veronica McNulty.

The college of the Sacred Heart has issued invitations to its commencement exercises, which will take place in the college hall next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Picnic for the House of the Good Shepherd.

A picnic for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd will take place on Saturday at Berkeley Lake and promises to be well attended. The sale of tickets has been encouraging, the number that have gone into the athletic parish alone, reaching a phenomenal rate. Everything has been most successful and the success, and the refreshment booth will be more delightful than ever before.

As usual when a benefit is given for the House of the Good Shepherd, the orphan inmates much of the entertainment, and some of the girls in Japanese costume will give a graceful drill. Miss Joanna Brosnan will be in charge of the entertainment. Streets, assisted by the Misses Rose and Grace Gibbons and Mrs. Hess and Miss Young. Mrs. George Allan Smith will provide at the Westgate or Elmer and Youth will be assisted by Mrs. George Williamson and Misses Finney, Mullen and Sullivan. Miss Margaret O'Keefe will be in charge of the amusements and will have capable talent from Denver to participate in the programme. In charge of the park and grounds are Messrs. D. M. Mullin, superintendent, William Davoren, P. R. Riordan, J. V. Kavanaugh, P. J. Kavanaugh, John A. Perry, H. A. Winbush, Jack Kerwin, O. P. Berry, H. A. Winbush and others. The athletic games will be directed by P. H. Buife, who will be assisted by L. H. Buife, John J. Ray, Thomas McGovern, James Clarke and Thomas Fielding.

Monsignor Robinson to Build New Church.

It is with pardonable pride that the Catholics of Denver will watch the erection of the pretty new church of the Annunciation in East Denver, for which plans have been completed and the work of excavation begun. For many months a fund has been steadily growing for the expenses of building a new house of worship, and now the church is completed there will be practically no debt upon it.

While the building will not be a luxurious one it will be substantial and commodious and will supply the needs of the growing congregation. The pastor, Monsignor Henry Robinson, is looking to confer a cheap and extravagant, and the church will be built in accordance with his ideas of simplicity in church architecture. The material used will be brick, stone and concrete, and the seating capacity will be between 700 and 800. Much interest is felt in the new church owing to the fact that the pastor is one of the pioneer priests of the Diocese of Denver, and it has always been his desire to see fitting temples reared in the Queen City.

For many years the large congregation of the Annunciation parish has been attending service in the basement of the school house at Thirty-seventh and Humboldt streets, but this room is now required for school purposes. The enrollment is steadily growing and now over 500 children attend the Parochial school. More room is constantly needed and the floor which now serves as a chapel will be partitioned off into school rooms.

All of the prominent business men connected with the Annunciation parish are interested in the erection of the church, and have lent material aid in raising the funds necessary. Monsignor Robinson is to be congratulated upon the success with which he has met in establishing the requisite fund and there is no doubt that the work will be pushed with all haste. A building permit was issued on Monday and the cost of the building, exclusive of furnishings, will be $25,000, and the interior decoration will amount to much more.

Since the little church on Thirty-eighth street, near the bridge going into Globeville, was abandoned, many years ago, the congregation has had no regular house of worship and has been content to use the basement of the school house. The property recently acquired at Thirty-sixth and Humboldt streets is a most desirable site for a church, and the new structure will be an ornament to East Denver.

Church of the Holy Family to Be Begun Next Week.

In a few months the new Church of the Holy Family at Berkeley Lake will be ready for service, as work will be begun next week and will then be pushed with all rapidity. The necessary money is on hand and everything is in readiness for beginning the work.

The new edifice will not be elaborate, but in a modest way will satisfy the needs of the Berkeley congregation. The people have to this time attended service in the chapel of the College of the Sacred Heart, but the new building will be in a more central location and will be more commodious. The church is situated at the corner of West Twenty-second and Jefferson streets, Berkeley, and the contracts will be let before the end of this week. The structure will be of red pressed brick and the cost will be in the neighborhood of $4,000. The money has been raised by the means of fairs, dances and other social parties, and especially by the efforts of the young people. The fair held immediately after Easter in the old armory hall in North Denver netted $1,819.07, a sum seldom equaled by such an undertaking. The pastor of the congregation, Rev. Lawrence Fede, S. J., feels much gratified over the prospects for a church and will work energetically to secure donations for interior furnishings.

Items of Interest.
The year book of the Diocese of Denver for the year 1903 is almost completed and is a handsome publication. Last year was the first time an attempt was made to compile a year book, and the initial number was such a success that Bishop N. C. Matz this year authorized James Phelan Cuddy, an old newspaper man and a friend of the charitable institutions of Denver, to renew the experiment. The book this year will take place at the Legation chapel on Sunday, July 3, at 10:30 o'clock. Low Mass will be celebrated by Bishop N. C. Matz. On the following Sunday the first solemn Mass will be said by young priests in the same church. Invitations have been sent to a wide circle of friends, including former students of the Immaculate Conception High school, where Mr. Cuddy graduated in 1888. The ceremony will be most impressive and will be participated in by almost every Catholic priest in the city. If possible, Rev. Mr. Cuddy, pastor of the church of Our Lady of Lourdes at Georgetown, a former schoolmate of Mr. Cuddy, will attend and will take part in the ordination.

Mr. Cuddy will reach Denver about June 23. He will be detained a few days on the way home, stopping over at Springfield, O., to be made a deacon at the service which will make a classmate of his a priest. Many out of town friends and relatives will witness the ordination of Mr. Cuddy.

The children of St. Elizabeth's school, to the number of fifty, received their first Holy Communion last Sunday morning at High Mass, a departure from the regular order of things. The class was led by Father De Sere, and the uniformed ranks of the Knights of St. John and other societies affiliated with the church were in attendance.

The regular choir of thirty voices was present at the last time for the summer, and sang with unusual feeling. On Monday the Feast of St. Anthony of Padua was observed at the same church, and Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Father Marcelus. The St. Anthony lily was blessed at this service.

The funeral of Sister Claudia Mac-Catello, of the house of St. Mary's, which took place from the chapel of St. Mary's academy on Thursday, was largely attended by the old pupils of the nun, who was for years associated with the faculty of the Denver convent. Interment took place at the convent cemetery at Loretto Heights.

Rev. Michael W. Donovan of Georgetown was a visitor in Denver during the week. He returned to his parish on Wednesday.

Rev. Father Cunningham, who has been in Denver assisting at various churches for the past few weeks, expects to leave the city next week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Priddy and children of Victor arrived in Denver on Saturday night and will make their home here for the future.

Miss Elsie Sullivan, who has been teaching school at Ouray, Colo., for the past year, has returned to her home in this city and will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Bowler were in Denver during the week, but have returned to their home in Leadville. They are about to move to Canon City for the summer months.

Misses Margaret and Madona Bonham of Golden were visitors in Denver early in the week. Miss Madona remained for the night at the convent school on Thursday evening.

The contest for the medals donated by the late Captain Ives of the United States navy enhanced the last days of the school year for the children at the Immaculate Conception school. To each room five medals were to be awarded for those attending the highest average in Christian doctrine. The presentation was made at the graduating exercises on Tuesday evening.

The banquet of the Alumni association of the Immaculate Conception High school took place on Thursday evening at the Hotel Denver. A more full account will be given through the columns of the Intermountain Catholic next week.

PUEBLO, COLORADO.
Mrs. B. Gilligan, one of the oldest pioneers in Pueblo, passed peacefully away at 6 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. La Grava, 310 East Evans avenue. She was 85 years old, and thirty of those years she spent in Pueblo.

There are three daughters and one son left to mourn her loss, Mrs. Mary Smith and M. L. Gilligan in Denver, and Mrs. A. La Grava and Mrs. Anna Dumeau of Pueblo.

The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, 310 East Evans avenue, at 8:30 Wednesday morning, and from St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock. The remains were laid to rest in the North Side cemetery.

Intermountain News.

BUTTE, MONT.

The state council of the Catholic Knights of America met June 12 in Stationary Engineers' hall on Quarts street, and adjourned until that for which the meeting was called, the election of state officers and appointing a supreme delegate to the extraordinary council to be held at St. Louis next August.

The following officers were elected: President, William Steuve, Helena; vice president, Colonel C. D. Curtis, Helena; treasurer, P. J. Sullivan, Butte; secretary, John T. Laws, Helena. William Steuve was chosen as delegate and John P. Smith as alternate to the extraordinary council. Father Bates was selected as spiritual adviser for the ensuing term.

The meeting was well attended by delegates, and after it was called to order the business of the day was considered and accomplished.

The next annual state meeting will be held one year from the present time in Helena. The matter to be considered by the extraordinary session is the readjustment of the rating of members.

Mrs. P. J. Haggerty gave a pleasant house party at her home, 111 West Porphyry street, Wednesday evening last week for her guests, Miss Mamie Harrington of Hamburg, Ia., who will spend the summer here, and Miss Mary Harrington, a friend of the hostess.

Mrs. Jack Thomas is arranging to give a choir festival soon at Sacred Heart church. Mrs. Thomas will be assisted in the presentation of the Catholic musical production, "St. Mary Mater" by the choir, and the affair promises to be a musical treat.

The church of the Holy Savior, in Massville, is filled to the doors, and over 100, failing to get admission, were compelled to stand outside of the church Sunday during the service of the first communion, administered to a large class of children.

Father Giacalone, pastor of the church, addressed the class and congratulated the young people, and the interior with garlands and wreaths and cut flowers. Father Giacalone has been instructing the class for over two months, and is proud of the excellent results of his labors.

The members of the class were: Guilelmo, Mary Glovich, Luisa Guilelmo, Caroline Consoni, Jennie Blosch, Lucia Negri and the high altar of the church. With Father De Sere came the St. Patrick's choir to aid in the service.

Both fathers spoke particularly to the new communicants, dwelling on the duty to the parents, and incidentally admonishing the parents to care well for the spiritual welfare of their children.

Parents, friends and communicants contributed lavishly to the ornamentation of the building, profusely decorated the interior with garlands and wreaths and cut flowers. Father Giacalone has been instructing the class for over two months, and is proud of the excellent results of his labors.

The members of the class were: Guilelmo, Mary Glovich, Luisa Guilelmo, Caroline Consoni, Jennie Blosch, Lucia Negri and the high altar of the church. With Father De Sere came the St. Patrick's choir to aid in the service.

Both fathers spoke particularly to the new communicants, dwelling on the duty to the parents, and incidentally admonishing the parents to care well for the spiritual welfare of their children.

Parents, friends and communicants contributed lavishly to the ornamentation of the building, profusely decorated the interior with garlands and wreaths and cut flowers. Father Giacalone has been instructing the class for over two months, and is proud of the excellent results of his labors.

The members of the class were: Guilelmo, Mary Glovich, Luisa Guilelmo, Caroline Consoni, Jennie Blosch, Lucia Negri and the high altar of the church. With Father De Sere came the St. Patrick's choir to aid in the service.

Both fathers spoke particularly to the new communicants, dwelling on the duty to the parents, and incidentally admonishing the parents to care well for the spiritual welfare of their children.

Parents, friends and communicants contributed lavishly to the ornamentation of the building, profusely decorated the interior with garlands and wreaths and cut flowers. Father Giacalone has been instructing the class for over two months, and is proud of the excellent results of his labors.

The members of the class were: Guilelmo, Mary Glovich, Luisa Guilelmo, Caroline Consoni, Jennie Blosch, Lucia Negri and the high altar of the church. With Father De Sere came the St. Patrick's choir to aid in the service.

Both fathers spoke particularly to the new communicants, dwelling on the duty to the parents, and incidentally admonishing the parents to care well for the spiritual welfare of their children.

Parents, friends and communicants contributed lavishly to the ornamentation of the building, profusely decorated the interior with garlands and wreaths and cut flowers. Father Giacalone has been instructing the class for over two months, and is proud of the excellent results of his labors.

The members of the class were: Guilelmo, Mary Glovich, Luisa Guilelmo, Caroline Consoni, Jennie Blosch, Lucia Negri and the high altar of the church. With Father De Sere came the St. Patrick's choir to aid in the service.

Both fathers spoke particularly to the new communicants, dwelling on the duty to the parents, and incidentally admonishing the parents to care well for the spiritual welfare of their children.

Parents, friends and communicants contributed lavishly to the ornamentation of the building, profusely decorated the interior with garlands and wreaths and cut flowers. Father Giacalone has been instructing the class for over two months, and is proud of the excellent results of his labors.

The members of the class were: Guilelmo, Mary Glovich, Luisa Guilelmo, Caroline Consoni, Jennie Blosch, Lucia Negri and the high altar of the church. With Father De Sere came the St. Patrick's choir to aid in the service.

Both fathers spoke particularly to the new communicants, dwelling on the duty to the parents, and incidentally admonishing the parents to care well for the spiritual welfare of their children.

a month's visit at Seattle and other towns on the coast.

Miss Alice Kennedy arrived in the city Monday from Pittsburgh, Pa., and will be the guest of her uncle, John F. Bannion, for the next few weeks.

Thomas Sullivan returned Monday from Butte, where he has been attending the meeting of the undertakers.

Misses Loretta and Nellie Sullivan remained last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Mayme Donahoe, who left for Idaho Friday.

Mrs. J. S. Dougherty left last week for a month's visit in Canada and New York.

Miss Mayme Donahoe left June 10 for Madison, Ia., where she will spend the summer with her brothers.

GREAT FALLS, MONT.
Father Shulak, an aged Polish priest of the Jesuit order and a linguist of no mean attainments, was in this city June 9, on one of his trips through the state, and while here made arrangements for the holding of an extraordinary mission in St. Ann's Catholic church for the benefit of the foreign born communicants who are unable to fully comprehend the English language.

Father Shulak is a fluent speaker in a number of different languages. He will conduct mission services during his stay in Great Falls, and will be assisted by Father Holtman of that place, and after conducting missions in Great Falls the latter part of this week and on Sunday, June 19, he will open a mission in the Polish language at St. Ignace in the Austrian language, and will close with a mission in German. About ten days will be devoted to the three missions.

Father Shulak is not entirely a stranger in Great Falls, although his headquarters are in Chicago. He has visited the church here for similar purposes in the past.

MOSCOW, IDA.
(Special Correspondence.)
Eternal punishment, as proved from the Bible alone, was given at the first series of sermons at the last Mass on Sunday, which was listened to by a very large congregation; to the hardened sinner it proved to be a meditative theme.

After Mass there was a general meeting of the ladies at the invitation of the pastor, when steps were taken to reorganize the Altar society, as also a lesson in literature, which was very laudable work—the propagation of the faith. Membership cards were distributed and quite a number were willing to associate themselves, since the spiritual advantages of both societies were practically demonstrated by the pastor in relation to the diocese.

Notwithstanding the pioneer day celebration of last Friday, which attracted all the country visitors to town, the attendance at Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart was truly gratifying. In the evening there was a beautiful discourse on the need of reparation toward that Divine Heart. The beautiful profusion of flowers was generously donated by Messadams Humphrey and Deakin, and the high altar was beautiful, as if nature also had to honor its Creator in the words of the royal Psalmist.

The senior choir has now been fully organized, under the direction of Mr. Fitzgibbon. Rehearsals are held twice a week until August, when they will render a new Mass, which was provided for by their musical pastor.

On his way to DeSmet mission last Wednesday, Bishop Glorieux made a pleasant call between trains. It was a pleasant surprise for some of the congregation to have met him upon this visit.

During the coming week the pastor will visit the Catholic community at Troy, Volmer, American Ridge and Julietta. Mass will be celebrated at the Holy Rosary church at Julietta next Sunday.

For the first communicants special classes are being held twice a week, so that all may be able to make up for lost time.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hoffman was baptized last Sunday, receiving the name of Emma Leonora.

Last Wednesday the late district attorney, Mr. Crozier, was buried from the M. E. church. The funeral was the largest that has ever been witnessed in Moscow. All the business stores in town were closed as a mark of respect to the bereaved family and the sympathy of the whole community is extended in their heavy hour of affliction, for Mr. Crozier was an ornament to his profession and a patriotic citizen for our prosperous community.

Are You Going to the Fair?
If you intend going to the Louisiana Purchase exposition, St. Louis, Mo., it will be very much to your advantage to correspond with Mr. F. H. Worsley, No. 411 Dooley block, Salt Lake City.

Mr. Worsley has arranged to have all his parties met at St. Louis depot and escorted to their lodgings, which will be reserved in advance. Information relative to rates, passes, rates, stop-overs, ticket limits, hotel rates and all other necessary information, together with free literature, will be cheerfully given free of charge. This will especially be of benefit to those desiring to travel with Utah parties or in parties of four or five.

School teachers will also hear something to their advantage by corresponding with above party.

BOISE, IDAHO.
Patrick W. Seegelin and Miss Margaret J. Charters were married last Friday night, by Bishop Glorieux. The young people are both residents of Garden Valley, and are quite well known in this city. They departed Saturday morning for their future home in Garden Valley.

Are You Going to the Fair?
If you intend going to the Louisiana Purchase exposition, St. Louis, Mo., it will be very much to your advantage to correspond with Mr. F. H. Worsley, No. 411 Dooley block, Salt Lake City.

Mr. Worsley has arranged to have all his parties met at St. Louis depot and escorted to their lodgings, which will be reserved in advance. Information relative to rates, passes, rates, stop-overs, ticket limits, hotel rates and all other necessary information, together with free literature, will be cheerfully given free of charge. This will especially be of benefit to those desiring to travel with Utah parties or in parties of four or five.

School teachers will also hear something to their advantage by corresponding with above party.

ANACONDA, MONT.
Hundreds of Anaconda residents, and many from Butte, went to Mountain View park Sunday to enjoy the picnic given under the auspices of the Catholic Order of Foresters, and they were not disappointed. Nothing was lacking to make the occasion a pleasant one. The weather was delightful and the park never showed to better advantage.

At the lake, in the pavilion and at the ball game, those bent on recreation found sufficient to give them a good time. The benches under the trees and the shady spots on the grass were constantly occupied by tired but happy picnickers. Everything connected with the affair passed off as smoothly as could have been desired. The committee in charge of the picnic is deserving of praise for the manner in which the different features were prepared.

J. H. Tolson was chairman of the committee, and other members were: Frank Birdsell, John Dooley, Joseph McDonnell, Joseph Hughes, M. Walsh, W. H. Mahoney, Pat Monahan, P. F. O'Donnell and J. O'Mara.

Mrs. Theodore Ehret and daughter, Miss Bertha Ehret, left Wednesday for

EUREKA, UTAH.

(Special Correspondence.)

J. F. Connor and wife of Stockton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Embleton this week.

Fred Matthews, Jr., and Michael Downey, who have been attending school at the Agricultural college at Logan during the past winter, have returned home to spend their vacation.

Mrs. John A. Hensel will leave next week for a couple of months' visit with relatives at Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Patrick Bonner, Mrs. Isabella Baird and Miss Mary Gallagher left Wednesday for Rockwell, Ida., where they will be the guests of relatives.

Mrs. J. S. Dougherty left last week for a month's visit in Canada and New York.

Miss Mayme Donahoe left June 10 for Madison, Ia., where she will spend the summer with her brothers.

GREAT FALLS, MONT.

Father Shulak, an aged Polish priest of the Jesuit order and a linguist of no mean attainments, was in this city June 9, on one of his trips through the state, and while here made arrangements for the holding of an extraordinary mission in St. Ann's Catholic church for the benefit of the foreign born communicants who are unable to fully comprehend the English language.

Father Shulak is a fluent speaker in a number of different languages. He will conduct mission services during his stay in Great Falls, and will be assisted by Father Holtman of that place, and after conducting missions in Great Falls the latter part of this week and on Sunday, June 19, he will open a mission in the Polish language at St. Ignace in the Austrian language, and will close with a mission in German. About ten days will be devoted to the three missions.

Father Shulak is not entirely a stranger in Great Falls, although his headquarters are in Chicago. He has visited the church here for similar purposes in the past.

MOSCOW, IDA.
(Special Correspondence.)
Eternal punishment, as proved from the Bible alone, was given at the first series of sermons at the last Mass on Sunday, which was listened to by a very large congregation; to the hardened sinner it proved to be a meditative theme.

After Mass there was a general meeting of the ladies at the invitation of the pastor, when steps were taken to reorganize the Altar society, as also a lesson in literature, which was very laudable work—the propagation of the faith. Membership cards were distributed and quite a number were willing to associate themselves, since the spiritual advantages of both societies were practically demonstrated by the pastor in relation to the diocese.

Notwithstanding the pioneer day celebration of last Friday, which attracted all the country visitors to town, the attendance at Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart was truly gratifying. In the evening there was a beautiful discourse on the need of reparation toward that Divine Heart. The beautiful profusion of flowers was generously donated by Messadams Humphrey and Deakin, and the high altar was beautiful, as if nature also had to honor its Creator in the words of the royal Psalmist.

The senior choir has now been fully organized, under the direction of Mr. Fitzgibbon. Rehearsals are held twice a week until August, when they will render a new Mass, which was provided for by their musical pastor.

On his way to DeSmet mission last Wednesday, Bishop Glorieux made a pleasant call between trains. It was a pleasant surprise for some of the congregation to have met him upon this visit.

During the coming week the pastor will visit the Catholic community at Troy, Volmer, American Ridge and Julietta. Mass will be celebrated at the Holy Rosary church at Julietta next Sunday.

For the first communicants special classes are being held twice a week, so that all may be able to make up for lost time.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hoffman was baptized last Sunday, receiving the name of Emma Leonora.

Last Wednesday the late district attorney, Mr. Crozier, was buried from the M. E. church. The funeral was the largest that has ever been witnessed in Moscow. All the business stores in town were closed as a mark of respect to the bereaved family and the sympathy of the whole community is extended in their heavy hour of affliction, for Mr. Crozier was an ornament to his profession and a patriotic citizen for our prosperous community.

Are You Going to the Fair?
If you intend going to the Louisiana Purchase exposition, St. Louis, Mo., it will be very much to your advantage to correspond with Mr. F. H. Worsley, No. 411 Dooley block, Salt Lake City.

Mr. Worsley has arranged to have all his parties met at St. Louis depot and escorted to their lodgings, which will be reserved in advance. Information relative to rates, passes, rates, stop-overs, ticket limits, hotel rates and all other necessary information, together with free literature, will be cheerfully given free of charge. This will especially be of benefit to those desiring to travel with Utah parties or in parties of four or five.

School teachers will also hear something to their advantage by corresponding with above party.

ANACONDA, MONT.
Hundreds of Anaconda residents, and many from Butte, went to Mountain View park Sunday to enjoy the picnic given under the auspices of the Catholic Order of Foresters, and they were not disappointed. Nothing was lacking to make the occasion a pleasant one. The weather was delightful and the park never showed to better advantage.

At the lake, in the pavilion and at the ball game, those bent on recreation found sufficient to give them a good time. The benches under the trees and the shady spots on the grass were constantly occupied by tired but happy picnickers. Everything connected with the affair passed off as smoothly as could have been desired. The committee in charge of the picnic is deserving of praise for the manner in which the different features were prepared.

J. H. Tolson was chairman of the committee, and other members were: Frank Birdsell, John Dooley, Joseph McDonnell, Joseph Hughes, M. Walsh, W. H. Mahoney, Pat Monahan, P. F. O'Donnell and J. O'Mara.

Mrs. Theodore Ehret and daughter, Miss Bertha Ehret, left Wednesday for

PUEBLO, COLORADO.
Mrs. B. Gilligan, one of the oldest pioneers in Pueblo, passed peacefully away at 6 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. La Grava, 310 East Evans avenue. She was 85 years old, and thirty of those years she spent in Pueblo.

There are three daughters and one son left to mourn her loss, Mrs. Mary Smith and M. L. Gilligan in Denver, and Mrs. A. La Grava and Mrs. Anna Dumeau of Pueblo.

The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, 310 East Evans avenue, at 8:30 Wednesday morning, and from St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock. The remains were laid to rest in the North Side cemetery.

CHURCH GOODS HOUSE.
Attention is called to the advertisement of The James Clarke Church Goods House, on the Denver page of this issue. We have no knowledge of any other house in this section making a specialty of Church Goods. Denver is our neighbor, the metropolis of the mountains, and it is like trading at home to order from Denver.

INFORMATION WANTED.
Information wanted as to the whereabouts of Michael Killen, age 49 years; was in Montana about fourteen years ago; last heard from in Spokane in 1896. Address this office.

H. A. Leipsiger, President.
Carl S. Schmidt, Vice President.
J. J. Leipsiger, Secretary.
Fred Strauss, Treasurer.

McGRANE'S CATHOLIC TOURS

To British Isles, Continent of Europe and Holy Land. For particulars, address 18 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

TALK IS CHEAP!

But it takes GOOD material, GOOD trimmings, a GOOD cutter and GOOD mechanics to make a GOOD suit.

AND MORE

It takes from $12 to $20 of good U. S. coin to buy one of the sure to fit and look GOOD suits sold by

ROWE & KELLY CO.